TERESA HALLECK OF SAN DIEGO COUNTY CREDIT UNION SELECTED FOR 2011 WOMEN WHO MEAN BUSINESS AWARD

Teresa Halleck, President & CEO of San Diego County Credit Union, the largest locally-owned financial institution, has been selected as an honoree for a 'Women Who Mean Business' award by the San Diego Business Journal (SDBJ).

Once a year, the SDBJ recognizes key women for their achievements and contributions in San Diego businesses and the community. An independent panel of judges selected the finalists after reviewing 141 qualified nominations. Halleck was one of 37 distinguished honorees among the total nominations. Each of the honorees was presented their award at a luncheon held in their honor. The keynote speaker at the event was local philanthropist and educator, Darlene Shiley. Also in attendance was San Diego Mayor Jerry Sanders.
